Italian Opera Enjoyed

The Italian opera selection rendered at Love's hall last Saturday and Sunday evening were all that could be desired. Jackson music lovers were indeed fortunate in having such classic singers entertain them at home, and it was certainly to be regretted that the audience was not what it should have been. The city needs a treat of that kind about every several weeks to keep awake the malady that lingers about the music lover's heart.

Miner Goes to Nevada

D. P. Murphy left on Saturday last for Nevada, where he expects to secure employment in one of the mining camps.

Bus to Sutter on 4th

The Union livery company with stables under Webb Hall, Jackson, announce that they will run special buggies to Sutter Creek from Jackson on July 4th, during the celebration both in the day time and night, and until the dance breaks up in the morning. 1t

Intend to Become Citizens

On the 29th ult. two persons took out their first naturalization papers. They were Fred Opie, aged 23, a native of Cornwall, England. He arrived in New York in August, 1907.

The other was William Angove, also a native of Cornwall, England, who came to this country in August, 1894.

For Surveyor.

Gustave Schrader in this issue announces his candidacy for the republican nomination for county surveyor. He is an expert mining engineer, and has been associated in this profession for a long time with W. E. Downs, the well-known surveyor of Sutter Creek. This announcement is the only one so far made for this office on either side. It is not a profitable berth, still it is important that it should be filled by one thoroughly qualified in that particular line of work, and Mr Schrader fills the bill exactly.

NOTICE.

Alfred Goldner respectfully announces to the public that he has retired from the drug business in Jackson, and has removed his Justice's office to his residence No 1 Court street, opposite Court House.

Erects New Porch

Harvey Clark is having a new porch built to the front and north of his residence on Broadway. W. Laswell is the carpenter in charge of the work, and he is doing a fine job. The new addition is a wonderful improvement to the dwelling house, and greatly helps in the attractiveness of that section of the town.

Installs Engine

George L. Thomas, manager of the city meat market in Jackson, has installed a new gasoline engine at his slaughterhouse north of the city, which will be used in furnishing water for the plant and for irrigating purposes. His engine pumps the water into a large galvanized iron tank which was recently erected.

The prisoners were hailed before Justice Rose and plead guilty to the charges preferred against them, and were sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

JACKSON'S BOOSTERS

Club Is Formed Composed of City's Leading Young Men

The new place of business will be the store room formerly occupied by Justice Goldner, as a drug store. A fine set of bath tubs and shower baths will be installed and the place will have a regular city shop appearance when completed. So much more for the foothill city

Assessor's Notice

I would like to have those who have not turned in their assessments for the present year, to do so at once, as I am closing the assessment rolls. I will be in the office every day this month. CLARENCE E. JARVIS.

Brute Stabs Cow

A valuable cow, belonging to Mrs. Nichols of Amador City, was gashed in the side by some maliciously disposed person, inflicting a terrible wound. The deed is believed to have been done in the night time, and in the public roadway. Dr. Golding, the veterinary surgeon, was called to attend, and thinks the animal will pull through. Sheriff Gregory was over to investigate but failed to discover any clew that would lead to the identity of the perpetrator.

Suffering from Paralysis

Mrs. Mary Buffington was stricken with paralysis at her home on Summit street last Saturday, and has been confined to her bed since. The attack has affected one side of the face. She has been under the care of a nurse since the affliction. We understand this is the second stroke she has suffered, and her advanced age, being between 70 and 80 years old, adds to the seriousness of the case.

KENNEDY WINS GAME

Mother Lode Miners Easily Beat Zeila

The Kennedy baseball team has become a deft for local teams, and made a great showing in their game with Zeila Sunday last at the local grounds near the Kennedy mine.

They beat the Zeila miners by a score of 35 to 6, the game was called in the second half of the 7th inning. Berry made a sensational play in the third inning by catching a hot line ball, with one hand. The Kennedy team has excellent grounds of their own located directly below the mill. They have as fine an infield as any team could wish, and the outfield is not the worst. The teams new suits were worn for the first time, they are gray blue with the word "Kennedy" in bright red sewed across their bosom. Red caps and red socks make up the rest of the uniform.

Game Warden's Catch

G. D. Calvin, county game warden, discovered 4 hunters looking for game in Jackson valley this week, and arrested one of the party for carrying game without a license. The offender gave his name as Nick Garbarini. When brought before Justice Goldner, in Jackson, and he plead guilty to the charge of hunting without the necessary license. The justice fined his prisoner $10, which was paid. Garbarini lives near Jackson Gate.

ENGINE TO HAUL LOGS

Large Traction Engine Does Fine In Mountains

J. B. Parsons, who has been fixing up the roads to the mountains for the purpose of hauling logs for the mines by means of a traction engine, started on the business of log hauling by this method last Monday. The engine hauls as much, if not more, than a ten or twelve animal team. It pulls two heavily loaded wagons. The road in places is narrow for this method of transportation, notwithstanding the labor that has been spent upon it. Whether the venture can be made a financial success is a problem that will require a little experience to answer, but the one who has initiated this process over the rough mountain roads is deserving of credit for his bold enterprise.

Permission to Appeal

Some time ago, Chas. H. McKenney as receiver of the Sutter Creek State Bank obtained permission from the superior court of this county to commence suit against one Ellsworth, a resident of Alameda county, to recover a sum of money alleged to be due from him to the bank. The trial was had in the superior court of Alameda county, with the result that the bank lost the case. The receiver obtained an order in the superior court of this county permitting him to appeal from the judgment of the appellate court.

Returns To Her Home

Mrs. Herick left Friday of last week for her home in San Francisco, after a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Dr. Gall. Her son Emerson will remain here for a short while longer.

JACKSON WINS GAME

Mason and Huber, New Material Used at Last Game

The game of ball between Ione and Jackson was won by the home team, by a score of 12 to 11. In the first inning Jackson brought home 7 runs. This was due to bad playing of Ione's infield. Ardito pitched for Jackson, Cromer was placed on first base and Dick Fortner caught. Huber played short stop and made good. He is a new player with the team this season. Myers played his last game of ball with the team. He managed to show 2 runs on the score card for himself. His runs could always be depended on, and it is to be regretted that the team could not hold him throughout the season. Prouty, of Ione, made the only home run, and as previously arranged, was presented with a box of Elko cigars by the local cigar dealer, M. P. Silva. Godding certainly Continued on page 8

PASS EXAMINATIONS

Four Scholars Successfully Make Teachers Certificate

The county board of education has been in session all the week, engaged mainly in grading papers submitted by the 22 applicants for teachers' certificates. Of these the following secured the necessary number of credits, and were awarded certificates:

Grover Deaver, Oleta, Cal., Emma Germain, Galt, Cal., Ethel M. Walker, Pine Grove, Cal., George F. Valente, Murphy's, Cal.

The following applicants received standing in ten or more subjects: Sophie Taylor, 12 subjects; Fay Little, 10 subjects; Frank G. Tremain, 11 subjects; Christina Walther 10 subjects; Mary Laragnino 10 subjects; Pearl E. Brown 10 subjects; Juanita Stone, 11 subjects; Lottie Wilkens 11 subjects.

The board is still in session, adopting library books and finishing up its business.

Slot Machines Go

The nickel-in-the-slot machines, having been put out of commission in Jackson, are gradually disappearing from the city. Many of them were simply turned face to the wall in hope that the anti-machine crusade would peter out. But this seems remote, so the owners are packing them away presumably to other parts, where their career of usefulness (?) is not interfered with. Three of them were taken from the Cental hotel on Wednesday.

Quits Drug Business

Alfred Goldner has surrendered the business premises in the Kay building, which he has maintained as a drug store for so many years. He has disposed of the small stock of drugs, and vacated the premises, being compelled to this course by continuous ill health, incapacitating him from attending to the store. He is able to appear down town occasionally, but is still seriously ill.

GERMS WITHOUT END.

The germ theory of the origin of disease may be correct. Without questioning it in the least, it does seem that scientific men of the medical profession are pushing the idea to the extreme of faddism. Every few days circulars are sent out, ostensibly in the interest of the public health, warning against the danger of infection from some disease-laden germ, or advocating the extinction of some form of insect life in order to reduce the liability of infection to a minimum. The truth is, if the people were to heed these interminable proclamations of warning and advice, they would be kept busy in making war upon germ-infected places or creatures. Life would be a constant worriment lest the ever-present germ gets in its work in an unguarded moment. The latest contribution to germ literature urges a war of extermination upon the common house fly, because it is alleged to be the disseminator of the tuberculosis germ. It has been re-christened "the white plague fly." It goes without saying that the common fly is a nuisance, and every capable housekeeper from earliest times has striven to abate the evil as much as possible. In spite of their efforts the plague of flies is still in evidence, perhaps on the whole as much so as when they tormented the ancient Egyptians. This eternal ding-dong about germs is getting to be a chestnut. In face of all this learned talk about the glory of "a flyless summer time," it is doubtful if a germless world such as platted out in the imagination of these sages would be any improvement upon the world as we now find it.

The Ledger recently published a communication advocating the continuance of the local scalp bounty law on blue-jays, skunks, coyotes, etc. Under the boost given to this law by raising the bounty, the county treasury is being tapped to the tune of between $2,000 and $3,000 per year. The argument used for the retention of the bounty is that a marked increase in the number of young quail is noticeable, and a decrease in the bluejay population. If the good work is allowed to go on under the stimulus of this bounty, in the course of a few years the conditions will be so improved that the bounty may be safely withdrawn. The purpose of this talk is to stiffen the backbone of the supervisors to put off the inevitable repeal of an unwise and burdensome ordinance, so that the bounty hunters can pursue their calling at the expense of the general taxpayers for a while longer. Of course, there are many throughout the county who do not want the law repealed. It is of decided benefit to a few, and selfish considerations are arrayed against repeal. Still we believe the prevailing opinion is that the law is unjust, and a useless draft upon the resources of the people, and the quicker it is abolished the better the general public will be satisfied. Bounty laws of this character are contradictory in their practical working. While they appeal to self-interest to engage in the destruction of so-called obnoxious animals and birds, on the other hand self-interest is awakened in the opposite direction, that is in keeping up the supply of such creatures, so that the premium business may be maintained on a profitable basis.

Gifford Pinchot and ex-minister Garfield have attempted to launch a new political party, with conservation as its corner stone. It is designed by its over-sanguine promoters to swallow up the grand old republican party. Both ex-officials are soreheads, and have exaggerated ideas of their own importance. It is whispered that they have presidential aspirations, and seek the new-party route as the only available plan of boosting themselves. The movement is not likely to create much of a stir in the political world.

There is no question that the foremost topic of interest in connection with fourth of July events next Monday will be the outcome of the Jefferies-Johnson prize fight in Reno—the battle for heavyweight supremacy in pugilism. The race question no doubt has much to do with the world-wide interest awakened by this coming battle, to witness which men are gathering in Reno from every quarter of the civilized earth. These fistic bouts are brutal and demoralizing, and tabooed by law in nearly every state in the Union; but that they have an element of popularity with the masses there can be no doubt.

SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY

Reported weekly for the Ledger.

Success of a Celluloid Substitute—Sex in Writing—Medical Electricity—A Curious Museum—Influence of Plant Food—A Unique Strong Box—Automatic Violin-Playing—Grawerts Combination—A Clearing-House for Waste.

Resinite, one of several recent substitutes for celluloid, is reported to Consul T. H. Norton, of Chemnitz, to be finding a variety of useful applications in the German art industries. Various modifications are produced by the union of formaldehyde with carbo-lic acid in connection with certain metallic salts, and the name is derived from the resemblance of one kind to ordinary resin. Impregnation with this particular sort gives hardness and impermeability to wood, pasteboard and other porous materials, ordinary pine being made so hard that it rapidly dulls a planer. Another variety is a liquid that can be poured into moulds, and coagulates into a transparent, ruby-tinted fusible solid, that is well adapted for imitation jewelry and other ornaments, and is an unalterable material for such uses as doorplates, street numbers and signs. Another liquid modification is solidified in a few minutes by a mineral acid. It becomes hard and homogeneous, can be easily cut and polished, and can be made to serve a wide range of purposes in place of horn, celluloid, vegetable ivory, and other substances. A very important advantage is non-combustibility.

That it is possible to determine sex from handwriting in perhaps 80 cases out of 100 is a conclusion reached by Miss June E. Downey from an examination of the writing of 200 persons. The specimens were submitted to two "professional graphologists" as well as to 15 persons ignorant of their art. The so-called sex signs are found to be largely influenced by the amount of writing done, by age and to a certain extent by practice, and by professional requirements, as in the conventional writing of teachers and the rapid hand of bookkeepers.

With the passing of empiricism and quackery in electrotherapy, Sir James Grant, Canada's distinguished physician, foresees the general scientific use of electricity for correcting debility, the result of defective blood power and imperfect assimilation. For his own work in the electrical repair of diminished vitality he claims marked success.

A collection of 107 species of living molds and allied fungi is the unique museum or botanical garden of the Paris School of Pharmacy. M. Bainier has patiently separated each from the others, maintaining pure cultures by sowing the spores on a suitable medium, with prepared licorice root as the basis. Each growth, renewed as necessary, covers its special piece of licorice root in a sterilized bottle of Bohemian glass about 3 inches in diameter and 8 inches high. Some of the species of fungi are common on foods and on various kinds of decaying animal and vegetable matter, others give characteristic flavors to various kinds of cheese, others produce fermented liquor from rice, and some are disease parasites of birds and insects—a few being active destroyers of troublesome insect pests. Greatly varied in form and color, the specimens form a curious and beautiful exhibition, which is at the same time of great scientific interest.

The common impression that uncultivated plants are richer in active principles than cultivated plants has led to an investigation by Chevalier, a French pharmacist, who shows that the belief is a result of unskillful cultivation and unfavorable soil. Proper methods and suitable fertilizers nearly always give a drug at least equal in activity to that from the wild growing plant. In cultivating belladonna, for instance, it is found that fertilizers containing phosphates and potash have little effect on the alkaloid in the leaves, but nitrogenous fertilizers cause a notable increase. With a mixture of farmyard manure and nitrates, the percentage of alkaloid was more than doubled.

A radium safe is necessarily a peculiar contrivance, as it must not only be proof against burglars, but must be able to hold a substance that easily passes through the thickest steel. The new safe of the British Radium Corporation is 3 feet high, weighs a ton and a half, has a tight-fitting circular door, and contains an inner chamber of pure lead 3 inches thick. To prevent loss on opening, the door is fitted with two valves, so that, before the door is opened, tubes of mercury can be passed through to collect and store the emanation formed. This corporation expects to supply 1-30 of an ounce of radium a month, valued, at the latest quotations, at the rate of about $3,000,000.

The electrical violin-player is one of the remarkable automatic devices produced by American ingenuity. It is controlled by a perforated music roll, which guides a group of 60 finger- ing magnets taking the place of the performer's left hand, and a substitute for the bow in the shape of a set of 4 revolving discs ¾ inch in diameter, each made up of a bundle of 50 flexible celluloid washes. One of the 4 discs acts on each violin string. Con- tacts governed by the perforations of the music coil cause action on electro- magnets, and produce expression by varying the speed of the discs and their pressure on the strings. A special magnet gives a bouncing low action when needed. A set of 4 mag- nets is also provided for plucking effects, and a vibrato effect is yielded by a large magnet with a weighted armature for shaking the tail-piece sideways. Connected with the ap- paratus is an electrical piano-player movement, operated by the same music roll to give accompaniments.

The "aerial torpedo boat" of Grawert, a German aviator, is de- signed to furnish a military machine that shall serve as automobile, motor boat or aeroplane according to the exigencies of the moment. A 50 horse- power Anzani engine is expected to drive the machine in the air—a combination of biplane and monoplane—at 60 to 75 miles an hour, and, and to carry 4 passengers. The transforma- tion from flying machine to automobile is simple. The carrying planes are fastened and fixed in place as side- walls for the machine, and it is be- lieved that the change can be made in 30 minutes under any ordinary con- ditions. Only an air propeller is used. This drives on land and water and in the air, and in recent Berlin trials the automobile made considerable speed on rough ground with 4 passengers.

To utilize manufacturing waste is in some cases a serious problem, and a committee of the American Chemical Society, under the chairmanship of G. Alleman, Swarthmore, Pa., have undertaken a solution. Manufacturers are to report the waste available. Each kind will be given scientific investiga- tion, and it is expected that materials hitherto lost will become economical new sources of chemical elements and of various profitable new products.

NEW BALL TEAM

City's Second Team Has Strong Line-up

Jackson's second team of ball players have reorganized and have material that will make anything in the county wince. The club is mostly composed of the old Jackson brewery's team, and residents living in Jackson last year remember the way the 2nd team made things pop during the season, losing but 2 games and de- feating most of the county's leading teams. Jackson's first team was a regular cinch is the way one of the players put it, and if they wish to get a repetition of the defeat this season, let them give us another chance.

We feel satisfied in saying that the second team will make good, and we hope liberal patronage will be shown them. Following is a list of available players who have agreed to help give Jackson clean base ball the rest of the season:

Will Boro, pitcher for Sutter Creek part of this season, with success. He has a number of balls, easily thrown and hard to hit and with proper sup- port will make any county team work hard for a game. Brown will take charge of the glove, and as a catcher, Jackson knows him to be good and fast, his head work will come as he grows into the game. Delahide comes here from St. Mary's and will hold down the first base. He is very re- liable, and has made good with St. Mary's and that is record enough. Eugene Boro plays second, and he is also a St. Mary's player. W. Fort- ner, is placed on the 3rd bag and we can say this makes an infield that will be hard to beat. Love at short stop braces the infield solidly. He is also a St. Mary's output, but could handle a ball before going to that school. Glavinich in left field, a St. Mary's school team player, a good pitcher, and a hard batter. V. Boro, center field, who understands the game and covers his territory magnificently, al- so a hard to beat pitcher, and Nelson Vela, to take care of right field. Vela also throws a good ball and is a re- liable relief if called upon for the box. Cuneo comes here from St. Marv's very well posted as a ball player.

Leach, the genial barber is well known, and Chester Holtz, the slugger are a few of the anxious players who have pledged to the new team. A team composed of boys as good in the game as the bunch above named, can- not be overlooked, and under proper management will positively forge ahead into prominence before the season is half over.

HIDDEN DANGERS

Nature Gives Timely Warn- ings that no Jackson Citi- zen can Afford to Ignore

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill- smelling urine, full of sediment and ir- regular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the ap- proach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanent- ly. Here is proof in the statement of a nearby resident.

J. E. Wood, sewing machine dealer, 1223 E. Weber Ave., Stockton, Cal., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills helped me greatly, and I am glad to make public acknowledgment of the fact. I was bothered by a lame back and I had pains in my kidneys. I also had trouble from a distressing kidney weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved my pains and aches and corrected the fault with my kidneys. My experience with this remedy has given me convincing proof that it acts promptly and brings per- manent relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Harvest.

Who is it, as the ice grows thick,
Takes on a settled grin?
The iceman, with his head of brack,
And neither kith nor kin.

This is the harvest time for him,
And while the sun's asleep
He hustles forth his forces grim
His frozen hay to reap.

In barns upon the banks they store
Each rugged blue white cake
And stuff in more and more and more
Until the big barns ache.

In summer will the iceman ride
In automobiles twain,
While those who have to leap aside
Must buy and swell his gain.
—Buffalo Express.

Making a Bad Matter Worse.

"Why do you write your rhymes without dividing the lines—that is, why do you run the stuff all together as if it were prose?"

"I do that for the purpose of piquing the reader's curiosity."

"Gee whiz! Isn't it bad enough to get a fellow to read a poem without adding insult to injury by piquing his curiosity?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Twostep and Waltz.

Oh, the twostep hop is a rough, crude dance.
With a step and a jump, a leap and a prance!
I do not care for a twostep where
You stepity-step, stepity-step and two-step.

But the waltz is so gentle and graceful and free
When we glide with the music harmoniously.

Keeping time to its beat with a rhythm of feet
That go waltzing and waltzing and waltzing.

—Puck.

Impossible to Understand.

"James Henry," says the wife sternly, "I cannot understand why you have stayed out so late tonight."

"Can't unshtan'?" pityingly replies James Henry, carefully showing his hat down over the newest post. "Bet dollar you can unshtan' me better'n you can any uzer feller I been wish."
—Chicago Post.

Met His Match.

He got in the barber chair,
And the barber tried to talk.
But all in vain—that fellow there
Won from him in a walk.

He got a verbal strangle hold;
'Twas quite beyond endurance,
But ere he left the agent sold
The barber some insurance.
—Cleveland Leader.

Queer State of Affairs.

We are told that love is blind,
Yet we know 'tis true
That love can see upon one chair
Sufficient room for two.
—Chicago News.

SHENANDOAH VALLEY

June 27—Mrs M Lott and son Tom were the guests of Mrs Brumfield on Sunday last.

Flora Goffinet returned from Placerville, where she took the teachers' examination. There must have been some great attraction there, as she made almost a two weeks stay.

Mable Kretcher is now visiting with Bessie Brumfield, the two girls paid Fairplay a visit on Thursday last. There must be some attractions, as they intend going again soon.

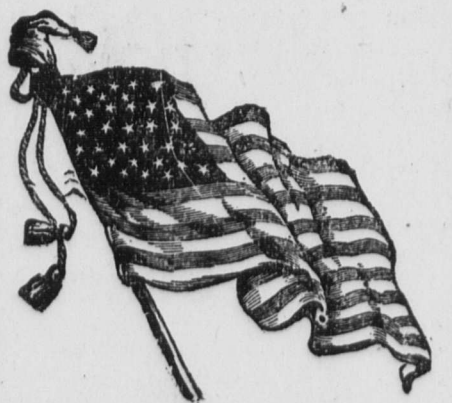

Rumor says Ralph Dillon is to be married soon. How about it Ralph.

Miss Eleanor Maylone is expected home soon at Fairplay, after a long visit with her sister at Truckee.

Herman and Flora Goffinet visited at Mrs Edner's on Sunday last.

Mrs Hamby left Wednesday morning for San Francisco, accompanied by her brother, Mr Oliver.

Elton Rule left town Tuesday for Sacramento, on a visit with relatives.

Ray Witte was a passenger on the outgoing stage Monday morning.

Mr and Mrs Lawrence White and children have returned home. Mrs White has been visiting her mother, Mrs Burns of Santa Cruz.

A report was current here that the Bunker Hill mine had shut down temporarily on account of being short of engineers. The report is incorrect. There was some trouble with the engineers, who quit in a body, but the mine and mill were kept in steady operation, and there will be no difficulty in filling the places vacated.

Joseph Cuneo and Richard Bennetts are pleased to get back to California, after their trip to Mexico. They say the country is agreeable enough, but there were other things that were not.

Miss Palmera White, the delegate of the N. D. G. W., returned home from the grand parlor, having had a most enjoyable time.

Daniel Meiss of Carbondale went through town to-day.

NOT A LAW CASE.

Just Wanted to Know Her Rights and How to Get Them.

In Washington some years ago there was a colored woman who demanded all that was due her. On one occasion, at a period when less care was given to the water supply than is now the case, the colored woman accosted a man who was just leaving the District government buildings. "Mistuh," she said, "I wants ter state a case."

"I am not a lawyer, aunty."

"Tain't no law case. I ain't gwine to sue nobody. I jes' wants to know what my rights is an' how to git 'em."

"You see any of the clerks here if it's government business."

"I ain't got no piece o' paper to shove in at de window so's to get noticed. But I's bein' 'scrutinized' against."

"What's the trouble?" was the kindly inquiry.

"I ain't gittin' proper 'tention. Ev'ry once in awhile I hyahs it read out o' de paper dat somebody has got a eel out'n his hydrant."

"Well, an eel is a very cleanly sort of creature. It doesn't do any harm."

"You didn't fink I was a-skyah't of 'em, did you? De case I wants to lay befo' de government is dis: I pays extra rent to kiver de water tax. I's had a hydrant in my back yahd foh foh-fyt years an' I ain't nebber got no eel yit."

"What I wants to know is how does dey 'tribute dem eels? Is dey prizes or is dey favoritisms or what is dey? If dar's any eels comin' to me I's hyah wif my basket, ready to take dem home right now, 'case we ain't got no money to buy meat, an' we's kin' of hongry foh feesh anyhow."—Youth's Companion.

Might Change His Mind.

Sir Frank Lockwood was defending a man accused of swindling and in an eloquent peroration talked of his much injured client as an angel of light. When Sir Frank had finished his speech his client whispered that he wanted to shake hands with him. "When first my solicitor told me what he was paying you," said the client. "I grumbled, but since I have been listening to you I have come to the conviction that the money was well spent, and I apologize. That half hour talk of yours about me has done me good. It is many years since I have experienced the luxury of self respect, and it is worth the money."

"Oh, that's all right," said Sir Frank genially, "but you take my advice and go out of court. Sir Edward Clarke, the lawyer on the other side, is just going to speak."

Poorly Paid Toymakers.

The toymakers of Sonneberg are among the worst paid work people in Germany. It often happens that the earnings of a Sonneberg workman and his family, working sixteen hours a day, do not exceed $2.40 a week. About three years ago there was an exhibition of home industries in Berlin where articles from Sonneberg were displayed, the making of which was paid for at the rate of 4 cents an hour. Numerous instances are on record of children after school hours working six hours at a stretch coloring and polishing the heads of dolls for a pittance of 1 1/2 cents an hour.

MINE NEWS ALONG LODGE

Bunker Hill

A small labor trouble occurred at this mine during the past week, resulting in the three engineers quitting their jobs. There are different rumors afloat as to the cause of the trouble, but the facts, as near as we can find out, are about as follows:

The engineers had previously made a demand for increased pay, from $3 to $3.25 per day, the same as engineers neighboring mines were getting. The request was not refused, but superintendent Harrington, not wishing to take the responsibility upon himself, used to lay the matter before the meeting of the directors. It appeared after this understanding the men were aware that correspondence was being had with outside parties, and assumed that it meant their displacement. The engineers waited upon the superintendent for an explanation, which was refused, and this led to his resignation or discharge. It appears the engineers had agreed among themselves that if one was discharged or quit in an emergency, they would all go out, which they did. This occurred at about 11 o'clock on Monday afternoon. A man from another part of the mine was installed as engineer temporarily, so there was no stoppage of the mine at this time. On Wednesday we are informed a shutdown occurred and lasted until the following day, in face of coercive tactics. Two engineers were secured yesterday, and operations were resumed. The trouble is about over, and no doubt the engineers will get the same pay as other mines in that locality.

More Praise for Our Pretty City

Enclose find my letter of last week's trip in Jackson:

TAM'S STORE

Tam's store located on north Main street, was claimed to be the only exclusive agent's furnishing store in Jackson, and so I determined to visit it in hopes of securing the Chitt-Peabody shirt, that I tried so hard to purchase elsewhere. I found a complete stock, and can add that I bought Jack a dandy one. Tam's are offering a general reduction on all ready made clothing. They are cleaning house for fall stock. Charles told me their fall sale of clothing is always heavy. Buying from a local store with a reliable reputation warrants the shunning of any cheap one-night fire sale bargain proposition.

SINGER SEWING MACHINE

A. W. Stone, manager of the Singer sewing machine agency in Jackson just received a big consignment of machines of the latest designs, and I met him just at a good time, for he felt like talking, and so explained points about the new Singer that I never imagined before could exist. Stone is reliable, one of his customers told me and so I took his word for all he said, and I placed an order for the latest and best machine he handled. I intend giving it to my sister as a wedding present.

RUHSER'S CITY PHARMACY

I went into the City Pharmacy to purchase Ruhser's compound extract of sarsaparilla, it is used to purify the blood, and strengthen a weakened constitution. Before the clerk could wrap up the bottle my eyes caught sight of several Indian baskets made of willow. I determined not to spend any more money before the fourth than I positively had to, but those baskets are such a novelty and solidly constructed, and such reasonable prices that I just invested in the largest size he carried. Mr. Ruhser told me they were made by the Indians up back of Blue lake.

FRANATOVICH & ZARCOVICH

I passed Franatovich and Zarcovich's marble and granite works, I noticed a prettily and artistically decorated monument, just the kind I wanted. I inquired of the manager the price of the massive rock and he told me. One would hardly believe a store cutter could make a good living on such cheap work, but they are reasonable and I ordered an exact duplicate to the one already finished.

JACKSON REAL ESTATE CO.

Jackson has a new business enterprise that not many people know about as yet, because of its just coming to town. It is a real estate company, managed by Bert McCoy. The manager saw me reading the signs he has posted in front of his office, and hurried out and explained to me a few of the remarkable bargains he had for sale. I promised to buy one of the ranches he offered me. I know the place well and it is worth more than twice as much as he asked for it.

BANK OF AMADOR COUNTY

I hardly know how to express myself over the courteous treatment I received at the Amador bank. You know at some banking houses they take your money and freeze you stiff if you make any inquiries about deposits or checks, well not so here. I think it is about the finest thing Jackson has in its favor to help the progress of the town, of course not comparing it with your paper, but I mean in a general business way. Their deposits are very heavy I am told and the institution is as solidly managed as is the U. S. treasury department. All our money is in this bank, and we find it very convenient when in Jackson to draw just what we need.

Respectfully, Hilda.

Miss Rose Stasal left yesterday morning for Seattle, Washington, for a two months' visit with friends.

GANDERBONE'S JULY FORECAST

Ballinger Trial, Fourth and Big Fight Are Discussed

Copyright 1910, by C. H. Rieth.
When the Ballinger trial is ended, And the jury has said what it thinks; When the case has been made and defended With the wonted political winks— We shall smile—and gads, we shall need to
That feel it as well had been dropped, And the Guggenheim crowd will proceed to Resume where it was when it stopped.
The signs shall come down in the timber. And the patents shall tie up the coal. The law will get flabby and limber, And the trusts will do well on the whole.
It always turns out in that manner, Although we may blush to confess it, And we do not regard it a banner Achievement, exactly, to guess it.

July is a tribute to Caesar. One day, with some other insurgents, he talked by the Pillar of Pompey on things of political urgency. He was just on the point of explaining the key to some government riddle when a party of regulars jumped him and cut him in two in the middle.

There were Decius Brutus, the speaker, and Cassius, boss of the senate, together with other insistent upon some political tenet. "The party forever!" they shouted, and what with that terrible slasher Servilius Casca great Caesar as well had been run through a hasher.

At any rate, Antony found him cut up into fodder for fishes and begged this request of the Romans, who granted the least of his wishes. And thus it has happened and shall be so long as the Tiber runs by the Pillar of Pompey that Caesar shall live in the name of July.

The Fourth shall return to discover Us waiting in battle array, And what with one thing and another Regretting we won, anyway, The cannon shall boom, and the scramble For things on the medicine shelves Shall warn experienced countries Aspiring to freedom themselves.

The dynamite cap and the rocket shall remind us of tyranny thwarted, and the valiant forefather shall turn in his coffin to see what he started. The eagle shall mount on his pinions and circle the north and the south, and the rapid-fire orator stand on the platform and shoot off his mouth.

This latter, however, is harmless in a strict pathological way, but remains notwithstanding an evil we must in due season allay. Alas, how deficient is nature that might lay this pest on the shelf with ruling that shooting his mouth off he gave the lockjaw to himself!

This tetanus, we are quite certain, has good and defensible uses, and all of its manifestations thus far have been only abuses. The idea, as we regard it, is not that it should be the cause of any more serious matter than locking the orator's jaws.

You know that we never hear of it except on the Fourth of July, and whenever some innocent gets it we forever are wondering why. Why, this is the fact of the matter, and by Jove, we are willing to bet it turns out in the long run that no one but a lot of old wind-jammers get it.

However, be that as it may be, And get whom the tetanus will, The jubilant youth of the nation Will resume with its shooting to kill The safe and the sane celebration Will suit us who are not so skittish, But the youngsters have got to do something To show what we did to the British.

There never was anything safe in the way the forefathers attacked them, and as for the saner attainments, the old fellows seem to have lacked them. They simply cast fear to the bowwows and waded into the affray, and a boy does not think himself worthy if he can't shoot himself, anyway.

At any rate, Jeffries and Johnson will growl like a couple of poodles and observe independence with beating the hair off their mutual noddles. They'll alternate making the other Leviathan howl for his mother, and if the country at random is lucky they'll manage to kill one another.

Alcohol to Children

Ask your doctor how often he prescribes an alcoholic stimulant for children. He will probably say, "Very, very rarely. Children do not need stimulating." Ask him how often he prescribes a tonic for them. He will probably answer, "Very, very frequently." Then ask him about Ayer's non-alcoholic Sarsaparilla as a tonic for the young. Follow his advice. He knows. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

The first great rule of health—"Daily movement of the bowels." Ask your doctor if this is not so. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. Sold for nearly sixty years.

It's only a plan to make money, deserving the strictest of strictures, for what they will have is a race war, dividing what's made on the pictures. We've been pretty mad in this country for dollars, and power, and places, but this is the first time we've trafficked upon the abyss between races.

The fat occupant of the White House Will lie on his back in the grass Beneath the green Beverly maples Observing the aeroplanes pass. The chauffeurs will keep right on chaffing, With seeing it's no one but Bill. And they'll sigh just to think what had happened Had they flown over Sagamore Hill.

But not every man can be Caesar, as someone has stated, alas! and in the due course of the matter somebody must lie in the grass. It's hard on a strenuous nation, afflicting us all in a way, but we'll look on the brighter side of it, and conclude it is good for the hay.

However, Time flies is a proverb, And one day, his foot on his gong And his engine back-pedaling, August Will come aeroplaning along.

Bridge Case Tried

The suit of Angella Gardella vs the counties of Amador and Calaveras, to quiet title to the Big Bar bridge property, came up in the superior court before Judge McSorley in San Andreas Tuesday. The plaintiff was represented by F. J. Soinsky, Paul Morf and John Hancock, while district attorney Keith looked after the interests of Calaveras and district attorney Vicini was here in the interests of Amador. Court reporter Doan took down the proceedings. The plaintiff introduced testimony showing the facts of the incorporation, and showing expenditures in the construction of the bridge and the improvements of the property.

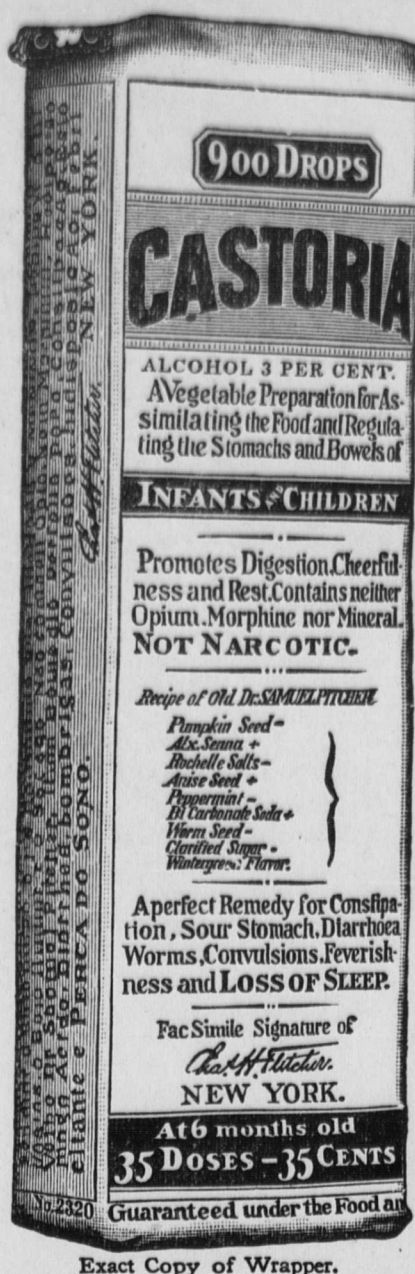

The case was closed by the plaintiff by three o'clock. The defendants submitted no testimony, their case resting entirely on the legality of the acts of the supervisors in 1898, in granting the franchise. If that act is sustained Mrs Gardella's title to the bridge is good as the franchise has several years more to run. The case was submitted on briefs to be filed in the usual manner.—Prospect.

MINER IS KILLED

Giant Powder Blows Man to Pieces Near Altaville

A shocking accident happened near Altaville last Saturday afternoon in which an Austrian miner named John Michlivich, was blown into eternity by the giant powder route. Michlivich, who was familiarly known as "John Rabbit," had worked at the Jack Rabbit mine for a long time, but was working at the Smythe mine at the time of the accident. The deceased had intended building himself a cabin near the mine, during spare time, and on the fatal day was digging a cellar, preparatory to erecting the structure over it. At noon he ate dinner with the rest of the miners, little anticipating the terrible fate that was in store for him. About 2:30 p. m. he returned from his work to get some powder to blast some hard formation encountered in digging. He knew where the powder was kept and after securing the desired article was going back. He had proceeded about fifty yards when an explosion was heard and when the men at the mine went out to see what had happened, they found the headless and frightfully mangled body of Michlivich lying on the ground. His head, left shoulder, neck and left arm were blown to atoms, while the right arm was broken and the trunk of the body badly mutilated.

It appears that Michlivich had secured probably a half stick of powder and was carrying it in his left hand as he walked along, the hand being held above the waist or just below the left breast when the explosion occurred. Whether the powder was primed and fused and just what caused it to explode will never be known.—Angels Record.

Deafness Can not be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars or any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A number of hunters have been hunting for jack rabbits and cotton tails without having procured the necessary hunting license. They seemed to be of the opinion that no license was required for hunting of this game. Clerk Huberty, however, felt different about the matter and communicated with fish commissioner, Chas A. Vogelsang, and was informed that a license must be carried in order to hunt the aforesaid game.

MODERN CIRCUS

Heavy Expense Faced by Big Show Managers

No one is above taking interest in a circus. Men are as excited as boys when a circus comes to town, and the coldest women like the glare and blare of circus day. Formerly, a circus was always a robber, but circus men have discovered that honesty pays better. Have you made this discovery? It is important and true. A favorite circus story is "on" Adam Forepaugh, an old-time circus man. It was remarked that a blind woman begged in front of the circus tent every day, and the employes finally complained, but old Adam said he hadn't the heart to drive her away. Later, it was discovered that the blind woman paid old Adam $20 a day for the privilege of begging with his circus. It was the same way with other privileges, including the gambling privilege, and the pickpocket privileges; old Adam got a rake-off. . . . But all that is changed: circuses are managed to-day as honestly as the Standard Oil Co. . . . A big circus represents an investment of $3,000,000, and between 600 and 700 horses and ponies are carried. A first-class menagerie costs $700,000. Giraffes are very valuable, because they are liable at any time to break their tremendously long and delicate necks. A rare animal that becomes acclimated is almost priceless, since many animals are as tender as young turkeys, and are liable to die as the result of a little exposure. A rhino is worth anywhere from $5,000 to $10,000. An elephant is hardy, and is worth anywhere from $1,000 to $5,000. . . . The largest single item of expense with a big circus is the salary list, which amounts to $2,800 a day. The average pay of all the circus employes is $2.80 a day, which includes board. The man who does a perilous feat often gets $600 a week, while a good rider gets $125, although the best riders were formerly paid $500 a week. The big money now goes to the "thrillers." . . . The cost of food for humans and animals with a big circus is $1,500 a day, and, curiously enough, the expense is equally divided: the hay costs about as much as the beefsteak. . . . The cost of clowns is $750 a week, which we are inclined to believe is more than they are worth. The best clown will get $150 a week, and the poor ones $35. Advertising costs $1,500 a day; of this, newspapers receive $300 a day. In some towns, the license is $1,500 a day, the city officials arguing that a circus takes money out of town, while other towns charge almost nothing, the city officials accepting the circus man's idea that a circus is a good thing, and brings in money that would not otherwise come. . . . The sideshows and the refreshments bring in nearly one-half of the net income of a circus. The sideshows makes from $400 to $500 a day net profit, and the refreshments $300. The average big show makes 10 per cent a year on the net investment, but occasionally a long season of good weather will run this up to 16 per cent. . . . Circuses are routed carefully, being sent to states where there are good crops. A circus is always sent to New England in the spring, before the factory employes have bankrupted themselves at summer resorts, which abound throughout New England. . . . A swift ticket seller is able to sell 3,000 tickets an hour, almost without a mistake, but every day there is a difference of $100 between the cash and the number of tickets sold. Sometimes it is against the circus, and sometimes in its favor. . . . All of which we extract from a magazine article by Hartley Davis. We don't vouch for the statements: we know Hartly Davis. He has visited this office, and we have known him to tell some mighty big lies about his elephants and performers.

Deceased was the second son of Mr and Mrs H. Jones, formerly of Sheridan, Douglas county, Nev. He had been sick about two months. He was sent to Lake Tahoe, but did not improve, losing six pounds in weight in one week. So he returned to his home in Empire, and lived two weeks thereafter. Finally the attending physician informed his relatives that he was suffering from typhoid fever. He seemed to be improving until the Sunday before he died, when he had an internal hemorrhage, which is often the premonitory signal of a fatal termination of this insidious disease. Earl was an exemplary young man. He was buried at Mattsville, near Sheridan, where he had lived for seventeen years. Besides his parents, he leaves one brother, and one sister. Mrs Jones, his mother, was formerly Nellie Ketcham, and was well known around Jackson, Pine Grove, and Volcano. Mrs Jones is a sister of Mrs C. Harding of Pine Grove, and Mrs Ralph Love of Oakland.
